
KITWELL PRIMARY SCHOOL LOOKED AFTER CHILDREN AND CHILDREN IN NEED PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Introduction

The rules around Data Protection are changing from the 25 May 2018. The 'General Data Protection Regulation' (GDPR) will change how we can use your personal data and keep it safe, and will also strengthen your rights over your own data.

The point of these changes is to ensure sensitive or private information about yourselves and your children stays safe and is processed fairly and lawfully. Whilst it is similar to the current Data Protection Act in many ways, there are a few differences, so we need to make a few changes at the school in order to ensure we remain compliant.

Under the GDPR personal data is defined as:

"any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('Data Subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person".

2. Categories of Information we Collect, Process and Share include:-

- Personal information (such as name, date of birth and address);
- Characteristics (such as gender, ethnicity and disability);
- Information relating to episodes of being a Child in Need (such as referral information, assessment information, Section 47 information, Child Protection Plan Information
- Episodes of being looked after (such as important dates, information on placements)
- Outcomes for looked after children (such as whether health and dental assessments are up to date, strengths and difficulties questionnaire scores and offending)
- Adoptions (such as dates of key court orders and decisions)
- Care Leavers (such as their activity and what type of accommodation they have).

3. Why we Collect and Use this Information

We use this personal data to:-

- Support the children and monitor their progress;
- Provide the children with pastoral care;
- Assess, evaluate and improve the quality of our services to the children;
- To record your child's progress against the National Curriculum;
- Enable us to carry out specific functions for which we are legally responsible;
- Maintain records of children's participation in school life.

4. The Lawful Basis on Which we Use this Information

Our legal basis for processing the data is to comply with our legal obligations to ensure children receive education, attend school on a regular basis, and are kept safe.

KITWELL PRIMARY SCHOOL LOOKED AFTER CHILDREN AND CHILDREN IN NEED PRIVACY NOTICE

As we are not relying on consent as the legal basis for processing data we do not need to seek your permission to process the data. By issuing this Notice to you we are fulfilling our legal duty to inform you that the processing is taking place.

Whilst the majority of the information is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis ie photographs. In order to comply with the GDPR we will inform you when you have a choice to provide this information or not.

5. Who We Share this Information with

We are required by law to pass certain information about pupils to specified external bodies, such as Birmingham City Council and the Department for Education, so that they are able to meet their statutory obligations.

We also routinely share information with: -

- the NHS (School Nurses);
- Support services (Birmingham Children Services; LACES Team; Educational Psychologist; CAMS; BEP; The Sweet Project; Malachi).

6. Retention Period

Kitwell Primary School will process and hold personal data for the duration of your child's time at Kitwell Primary School and will store the personal data in line with data protection legal requirements.

7. Rights of a Data Subject

At any point while we are in possession of, or processing you and your child's personal data, you have the following rights: -

- Right of access – you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to correct data that is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – in certain circumstances you can ask for the data we hold to be erased from our records.
- Right to restriction of processing – where certain conditions apply to have the right to restrict the processing.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation ie transition to secondary school.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as automated processing.
- Right to judicial review: in the event that Kitwell Primary School refuses your request under rights of access, we will provide you with a reason as to why. You have the right to complain as outlined below.

All of the above requests will be forwarded on should there be a third party involved in the processing of your personal data.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Please note that Kitwell Primary School will not reveal information in response to Subject Access Requests that might cause harm to the physical or mental health of the pupil or another individual

8. CCTV

We use CCTV in various locations around the school site to ensure it remains safe. We will adhere to the ICO's code of practice for the use of CCTV.

We do not need to ask individuals' permission to use CCTV, but we make it clear where individuals are being recorded. Security cameras are clearly visible and accompanied by prominent signs explaining that CCTV is in use.

Any enquiries about the CCTV system should be directed to the Data Protection Officer.
